

Denton & Alburgh Parish News (DAPN) - Privacy Policy Statement

October 2022

This privacy policy explains how we use any personal information we collect about you as a member. Member refers to subscribers and advertisers.

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by [the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (the "GDPR")]

2. Who are we?

The DAPN is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The DAPN complies with its obligations under [the GDPR] by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

4. What information do we collect about you?

We collect information about you when you become a member or renew your membership with us.

5. How will we use the information about you?

- To enable us to provide a monthly magazine for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To inform individuals of news, events, activities of the parish news
- To manage our staff and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records.

6. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential, and will not be shared with any third parties

7. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

Processing is necessary for the legitimate interests of the data controller, except where such interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of the data subject.

The legitimate interests of the data controller are detailed in section 5 above.

Provided that:

- The processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
- There is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

8. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal data for as long as you remain a member of the parish news, when your membership ends, your personal data is destroyed.

9. Marketing and Advertising

We would like to send you information about activities and events which may be of interest to you. If you have consented to receive our newsletter, you may opt out at a later date. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you for any purposes.

10. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption [under the GDPR], you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of your personal data which the DAPN holds about you;
- The right to request that the DAPN corrects any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for DAPN to retain such data;
- The right to request that the data controller provide the data subject with his/her personal data and where possible, to transmit that data directly to another data controller, (known as the right to data portability), (where applicable)
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to object to the processing of personal data, (where applicable)
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioners Office.

11. Changes to our privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on this web page. This privacy policy was last updated on 10th October 2022.

12. How to contact us

Please contact us if you have any questions about our privacy policy or information we hold about you: by email dentonalburghnews@gmail.com.